KELLAR-MACKRETH WEDDINGS.

Ceremony Performed in the Simpson M. B. Church.

The auditorium of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was crowded last evening at the marriage of Miss Nellie Mackreth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mackreth, of South Sumner avenue, to Charles K. Kellar, of the Scranton Traction company. Potted plants, ferns and palms were arranged in front of the altar, converting it into a veritable bower.

At promptly 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church and proceeded up the aisle to the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was skillfully played by Frank Reynolds on the organ. They were met by Rev. D. W. Skellenger, and the marriage ceremony was performed with the Presbyterian ritual.

The bridesmaid was Miss Martha Connolly, of the North End, and the groomsmen, William W. Adams, of Scranton, Miss Mackreth and her maid were similarly attired in cream silk dresses with trimmings of pearl and lace. The groom and groomsmen were in full dress. After the ceremony had been performed, the party were driven to the bride's home on South Sumner avenue, where an excellent wedding supper was served.

The newly wedded couple left on the 1.45 Delaware Lackawanna and Western train this morning on a wedding trip which will include Niagara Falls, New York and Philadelphia. The bridesmaids were John Mackreth, George McDonald, Alex. McTaggart and Edward Davis.

The wedding presents were costly and numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Kellar were very well known. They will reside on this side of the city. The bridesmaid, Miss Martha Connolly, of Mount Pocono; Mrs. Wade, Esther and Maggie Parfrey and James Brown, of Moosic; Miss Martha Connolly, of Scranton; Miss Mary Ann, of Scranton; Wade, Carrie and Bessie Long, of Lott and Gertie Connolly, of East East, of Thompson, Maggie Jones, Julia and Mame Campbell, of Scranton; Lizzy McCormack and Alex. McTaggart, of Scranton; Edwin Davis, of Scranton; McDonald, Mr. Patterson, John Handon, Evan Babb, Mr. Price and Will S. Meers.

GOSPEL TENT SERVICES.

Evangelist Schiavera Addresses a Large Audience.

Tonight will close the gospel tent services on the West Side which were begun here on Sunday, by Evangelist E. W. Bliss. During the past week the services were conducted by Frederick Schiavera assisted in the singing by W. Weedon. Mr. Schiavera was the means of reviving the interest in the tent, and large crowds have been nightly accommodated in the tent. The canvas structure will be removed by a force of workmen tomorrow to a vacant lot opposite the court house, and the good work continued. Yesterday's services began at 8:30 o'clock with a ladies meeting in the Jackson Street Baptist church. A song service was held and the local pastors prayed. Mr. Schiavera preached an eloquent sermon.

The tent was crowded as usual last evening. On the platform were seated Revs. L. C. Floyd, T. J. Collins, R. G. Jones and Mr. Schiavera. After the song service Frank W. Pearson, secretary of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, prayed. Mr. Weedon then sang "The Home Land," a composition of Mr. Stebbins. Prayer was given by Rev. T. J. Collins and the evening collection taken up. Mr. Schiavera preached an unusually forcible sermon. He took his text from Acts 15: xx, saying: "What shall I do to be saved." The sermon was a most beautiful one.

LITTLE WEST SIDE NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. D. C. Williams, of Luzerne street, is ill.

John R. Jones, of Bellevue, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

William R. Davies, of Kingston, is visiting friends here.

Miss Minnie Montgomery, of Mercer, is the guest of friends here.

Miss Jennie Edwards, of Carbondale, is the guest of friends on this side.

Alderman M. L. Blair, of South Main avenue, has returned from New York.

Robert Morris Lodge, Order of American True Iovites, will give an entertainment on Thursday night.

John Weldon and Percy Alvord, of New York city, have returned home from a visit with friends on this side.

Keystone lodge No. 3, of Loyal Knights of America, met at Hart's hall last evening and considered the work done by the grand lodge on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Village Belle quartette has organized with the following members: Phil Martin, William Morgan, Will Davis and Thomas Jones. The society will be prepared to meet any engagements that may be offered.

Jacob W. Boyce, of Jackson street, will leave today for Maryville college at Maryville, Tenn., for a theological course. Mr. Boyce is an active and intelligent young man, and his numerous friends wish him success as a preacher.

The members of Centennial lodge, Ancient Order of Foresters, are requested to meet in Co-operative hall on North Main avenue Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, to attend the funeral of the late brother, John C. Thomas.

Petitions will be circulated by the committee appointed by the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society to arrange for a course of university extension lectures. Milton's "Paradise Lost," and Goldsmith will probably be taken up.

While at work on a house belonging to George Phillips yesterday afternoon, John J. Morgan, of Jackson street, brother of Druggist B. G. Morgan, fell from a scaffold where he was painting and was painfully injured. One of his short ribs was broken. Mr. Morgan was removed to his home, where the injury was dressed by Dr. George Beach. At a late hour last night Mr. Morgan was resting easily.

William Stevens, the proprietor of the Patagonia hotel, entertained about 50 of his friends with a supper on Tuesday evening. The party was composed of several of the West Side leaders in oratory, music and poetry. Alderman T. T. Morgan, justice of the peace, presided. He eulogized the host on the excellent menu which had been prepared, and referred in glowing terms to Mr. Stevens' many fine qualities.

Joseph D. Lewis was toastmaster and after a few introductory remarks, called upon T. Ellsworth Davis for remarks. The latter's efforts were greatly applauded. Alderman Williams, of the First ward, spoke of the Welsh bard, and exhibited a keen knowledge of the poets. Appropriate remarks were then made by Horatio Fellows, Samuel Jones and Thomas Prosser. Solos were rendered by Gomer Jones, David Jones, D. C. Lewis, Thomas Williams and Richard Williams. At the conclusion of a stirring political address by Alderman Morgan, great enthusiasm manifested in the whole Republican ticket.

John C. Thomas, who was seriously hurt in the Manville mines on Tuesday last, died from his injuries at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home on Swetland street. Mr. Thomas was struck with a large rock which fell from the roof of the mines where he was at work. Drs. Reynolds and Williams attended him, but he was beyond recovery. Deceased was born in Wales in 1833, and came to this country about fifteen years ago. Since that time he has been a resident of the West Side, where his industry and genial disposition won for him numerous friends. He was a member of Centennial lodge, Ancient Order of Foresters, and the Manville Mines Accident fund. A wife and four children survive him. The funeral will occur on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

City and School Taxes, 1894.

The city and school tax duplicates for the year 1894 are now in my hands for collection. Persons wishing to pay cash do so now, or any person requiring statement of taxes by giving ward and location of property will be promptly answered.

R. G. Brooks, City Treasurer. Municipal building, Washington avenue. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturdays, this office will be closed at noon.

SOUTH SIDE.

BETWIXT AND BETWEEN.

Marriage That Bears That Relation to Elopement and a Home Ceremony. It was not altogether an elopement, neither was it an advertised ceremony, but the journey of Miss Catherine Volner, of Fig street, and Frank Wheeler of the West Side, to Binghamton yesterday had just a tinge of secrecy about it, and kept the madams of the South Side guessing for some time.

The engagement of the young couple has been announced for some time, but the date of their marriage was not known. They left together at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for Binghamton and the friends of Miss Volner admitted that before her return she would be the wife of Mr. Wheeler.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

The Lackawanna Knitting mills are idle owing to a scarcity of wool.

The Star Social club will hold a ball at Germania hall Monday night.

Miss Sarah McNamara, of South Washington avenue, is visiting in Olyphant.

The Manhattan Athletic club will give a complimentary social at Germania hall on Oct. 10.

Mrs. Philip McGuire, of Prospect avenue, left yesterday morning for Brooklyn on a visit to friends.

Thomas M. Jones, of Pittston avenue, is making an improvement on his residence by the erection of a large wing.

The Scranton Athletic club will meet regularly hereafter on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Mrs. Washington Frable and daughter, Lila, returned home yesterday from Monroe county, after a two weeks' visit.

The South Side barbers held another meeting last night at Zug's barber shop and unanimously agreed to carry out the early closing movement.

The funeral of Charles, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thiel, of Fig street, will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the German Catholic cemetery.

At the rooms of the South Side Young Women's Christian association a prayer meeting will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Mary Dunn, state secretary of the Young Women's Christian association will lead. The meeting Sunday afternoon will be led by Miss Lottie Lengler.

The young folks of the Nineteenth and Twentieth wards are considering the organization of a dancing class for the coming winter. Two years ago a class met at Dr. Manley's hall once a week and the season was very enjoyable. An effort is now being made to resurrect that class, engage a first class teacher and enter upon a period of amusement.

Last night after supper Mrs. McGinnis, of South Main street, was visiting before Alderman Fitzsimmons and a warrant was made out against her neighbor, Mrs. McCracken, on the charge of disturbing the peace. At the hearing, both women gave evidence of being entirely blameless, and after a severe reprimand to both, the alderman quashed the case by dividing the costs, as the charge comes under the head of violating a city ordinance.

NORTH END.

A MORNING WEDDING.

Miss Selma Noon Married to George O'Donnell at Holy Rosary Church. George O'Donnell, the well known druggist, and Miss Selma Noon, of Green street, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church before a large gathering. Solemn nuptial mass was said by Rev. W. J. O'Donnell, acting as deacon, and Rev. J. O'Toole as celebrant. The bride and bridesmaid, Miss Kate Roddy, a cousin of the bride, were attired in emerald purple, white and silk dresses with velvet bodices and trimmed with heavy cream silk lace. Miss Libbie Levy presided at the organ and played the wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After a wedding breakfast at the Wyoming House the bridal party left on the 1.45 train for Philadelphia, New York and Washington, intending to be gone about two weeks.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell will begin housekeeping over the drug store on West Market street. They were the recipients of a large number of handsome and costly presents. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Donnell, of Danmore; Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and daughter, Miss Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glin and Miss Meehan, of Hyde Park. Mr. O'Donnell, Miss Mary O'Donnell and Mr. and Mrs. John Welsh, of New York; Bernard O'Toole, of Mount Carmel.

SERVICE IN GOSPEL TENT.

Mr. Bliss Delivered an Address on Salvation.

That the general interest in the Moody meetings is increasing is shown by the 1,500 persons at the service in the gospel tent last night to hear the lecture by Mr. Bliss on "Salvation."

The noted evangelist announced his text as Isaiah lxviii, 18, from which he cited that Christ is the greatest conqueror the world has ever known, and one who exacts no tribute for the blessings he bestows. Mr. Bliss urged his hearers to appreciate the fact that salvation is free and is offered to those

SEPTEMBER 20, 1894

JUST TWO YEARS ago we flung our banner to the breeze and floated into the stream of business. We were confident of success from the start and our confidence led us to expect great results. We went in to win. Our friends were with us, as they are still—with thousands of new ones added. Our aim has been to conduct a business establishment upon a fair and honorable basis—to make our customers' interests our own, to deal with all alike on a strictly one-price system, and that always the very lowest possible price; to keep only the most reliable makes of goods, that we might appeal to you on their merits. Have we succeeded?

HERE ARE A FEW FACTS.

DRAW YOUR OWN CONCLUSIONS.

Stock twice as large as when we opened.

Business increased 100 per cent.

An addition of 1,500 square feet of floor space.

Enlarged and better facilities in every department.

Number of salespeople increased from 9 to 18.

Several departments added.

Among them our new Clock Parlor—handsomely furnished and superbly stocked.

Evidence good enough? "Yes," we hear you say, "the boys have done well."

We expect to do better.
